I've wanted to make this record for years now to feature the blues side of my songwriting and playing as well as to honor some of my biggest influences in blues. I hope you enjoy listening to it as much I as I did making it.

Thanks to Doug Driesel, Brandon Allen ,Paul Chris & Andrew Dunbar. Your talents and passion made these songs come to life. Thanks to Cindy, Ryan & Abby, Lucky the Studio Dog, & my family, friends and fans who have supported my music. Thanks to Judge Wolfe for making some of the guitars used on this recording. Thanks to Mike Segui and Tom Gibson for endlessly entertaining me with guitar minutiae.

Special thanks to my brother Dan, we all miss you.
